REPORTS

For the Rice trade from Burmah and Arracan there has been less demand, during the fortnight, and such charters as have been effected establish lower freights, which very few of the vessels now full cargoes, at £3 10s for dead weight, £4.10s for light freight and measurement, but as a good many vessels likely to take the berth are expected, we are by no means sanguine that these rates will be maintained. The value of British shipping will
